Introduction

This document constitutes the Privacy Policy for the website of: <https://explomet.pl>
The Privacy Policy consists of two parts:

PART I „Cookies files” – applies to all Users using the website of: <https://explomet.pl>

PART II „Personal data” – applies only to those Users whose personal data is processed by the Administrator of the website.

PART I „Cookies files”

1. Cookies files (so-called Cookies) are IT data, in particular text files, which are stored on the User's end device (device on which the web browser is located) and are intended for the use of the website of <https://explomet.pl>. Cookies usually contain the name of the website they come from, the storage time on the end device and a unique number.
2. We explain that we only collect information contained in cookies on the website, but we do not collect any other data from you on your device. Please be advised that the portal does not use the so-called tracking cookies, i.e. files that enable spying on users.
3. By using our website, you consent to our use of Cookies for the purposes described in this document. We remind you that you can change the settings of Cookies at any time using the settings of your browser.
4. On our website <https://explomet.pl> we use Performance Cookies, i.e. to collect information about how to use our website to make it work better, and Functional Cookies, i.e. to “remember” about user settings (e.g. language, size fonts). Therefore, we use cookies for the following purposes:
 - a) adapting the content of the website to the user's settings regarding the use of websites. This makes possible to recognize your device and properly display the website, tailored to your individual needs,
 - b) ensuring greater security of using of our website,
 - c) creating statistics that are the basis for the analysis of how users use websites.
5. We use two types of Cookies on our website:
 - a) session cookies, i.e. temporary files that are stored on the user's end device until logging out, leaving the website or turning off the web browser,
 - b) persistent cookies, i.e. files that are stored on the user's end device for the time specified in the parameters of these files or until they are deleted by the user.
6. We explain that the web browser very often allows cookies to be stored on the user's end device by default. We remind you that you can change your Cookie settings at any time. These settings can be changed, for example, in such a way as to block the automatic handling of Cookies in the web browser settings or to inform about their every posting in the user's device.
7. You can also clear your browser cache on your own, so that all Cookies will be deleted.
8. Detailed information on the possibilities and methods of handling with Cookies is available in the settings of your web browser (i.e. Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer).
